

Table of cases .....	ix
Chapter One
An Introduction to Sex Markets.....	1
a. What are “sex markets”? .....	2
b. Law and economics in sex markets .....	10
Chapter Two
Sexual Services.....	13
a. Prostitution.....	13
b. Contracts related to prostitution.....	19
c. Striptease, lap-dancing, peep-shows.....	23
d. Sex over the phone and the Internet.....	25
Chapter Three
Sexual Goods .....	29
a. Pornography .....	29
b. Sex-enhancing products .....	33
c. Aphrodisiacs .....	36
Chapter Four
Sex and Property Rights.....	39
a. Property of obscene objects .....	39
b. Copyright.....	40
c. Trademarks, patents and other forms of protection of intellectual property.....	44
Chapter Five
Sex Industries.....	49
a. Producers of pornographic films .....	50
b. Adult entertainment TV .....	51
c. “Red light” cinemas, night-clubs, prives, sex shops .....	53
d. Licensing and zoning .....	55
e. Sex tourism.....	59
Chapter Six
The Protection of Sex Consumers .....	63
a. The parties .....	63
b. Sale of goods .....	64
c. Services.....	..
d. Payment .....	..
e. Unfair terms and deceptive practices .....	66
f. The applicable law.....	67
Chapter Seven
Sex as a Profession.....	69
a. Human dignity and the validity of acts of disposal of one’s body.....	69

b.	The disposability of one's sexual features .....	71
c.	The commodification debate' .....	74
d.	The reality of sex workers .....	76
e.	The quest for respectability .....	78

Chapter Eight

	Of Sex and of Love.....	83
a.	Cohabitation, premarital, marital, and post-marital agreements .....	84
b.	Marriage brokerage .....	88
c.	On-line dating services .....	94

Chapter Nine

	A Comparative View.....	...
a.	The In pari causa turpitudinis and Ex turpi causa non oritur actio rules .....	97
b.	The prohibitionist/feminist approach.....	101
c.	The market approach.....	107
d.	European perspectives: Towards a common market'?.....	109
e.	International trade issues .....	113
f.	Regulation and reform .....	115
g.	Social norms.....	.

	Concluding Remarks .....	119
	Interdisciplinary and plurality of legal approaches.....	119
	Non-market sex .....	12i
	Sex and sexual ability as a human right.....	124
	Sexual freedom.....	125
	Sexual immorality: A notion that has made its time? .....	126
	Bibliography.....	127
	Index.....	139